

FORUM 2019
Turning the Tables
Thursday 17th October

www.mineralswestcoast.com

Welcome to the Minerals West Coast 2019 Forum – Turning the Tables. Below is the order of speakers for the day and scheduled break times.

Please note half hour allotted per speaker allows for an introduction, fifteen - twenty minutes speaking and five - ten minutes for questions

Time	Speaker	Organisation/Company	Topic
0900	Patrick Phelps	Minerals West Coast, manager	Housekeeping and welcome.
0915	Glenys Perkins	Minerals West Coast, chair	Update from board.
0930	Richard Tacon	Bathurst Resources, chief executive Coal Association of New Zealand, chair	Future direction of Bathurst Resources and update from coal industry.
1000	Mike Meehan	West Coast Regional Council, chief executive	Update on potential implication for mining industry on changes in biodiversity and freshwater policy.
1030	CABLE PRICE MORNING TEA
1100	Stephanie Hayton	Oceana Gold, Globe Progress Reefton, restoration environmental coordinator	Restoration work to date at Globe Progress mine in Victoria Forest Park. Future planned restoration work to be carried out before the land is returned to the Department of Conservation.
1130	Brett Cummings	West Coast Goldminers' Association, chair	Access agreements and rehabilitation efforts on small to medium sized mine sites.
1200	Adele Fitzgerald	Project Crimson, chief executive	Scope for supporting conservation efforts through Project Crimson and Trees That Count.
1230	WEST-TRAK LUNCH
1330	Gary Bramley	The Ecology Company, managing director	Role mining can play in supporting New Zealand's conservation efforts. Zealand's conservation efforts.

Time	Speaker	Organisation/Company	Topic
1400	Tim Journeaux	NZ Petroleum and Minerals, principal minerals advisor	Developments in online permit applications, policy update on Crown Minerals Strategy, and the general direction of New Zealand Petroleum and Minerals.
1430	CABLE PRICE AFTERNOON TEA
1500	Dave Jennings	GNS Science, business partnerships manager	GNS Science's latest research in geophysics and electromagnetic surveys, geothermal energy prospects and potential deposits of rare earth elements, pounamu, and bluestone.
1530	John Youngson	New Zealand Institute for Minerals to Materials Research, senior resident geologist	Technology research on ultra-fine gold recovery, turning coal to carbon foam for batteries, and accessory mineral recovery.
1600	END OF FORUM, MEMBERS STAY FOR AGM

With thanks to our sponsors

